Bombastic and barefaced, theatrical and sincere, it invites us to laugh, to sing, to reckon, and to revel. An undeniable artist-to-watch, Selve aren't just performing; they're liberating – they're throwing open the curtains and letting it all spill out. - Atwood Magazine

Fronted by Jabirr Jabirr man Loki Liddle, Selve are breaking ground and crushing milestones at every turn.

After recording their sophomore album Breaking Into Heaven at the legendary Abbey Road Studios and releasing it to widespread acclaim from Triple J, Rage, and Rolling Stone, the band marked the occasion in unforgettable fashion — selling out a 700-capacity pre-release premiere at HOTA, performed live alongside a 33-piece Australian Session Orchestra as part of Bleach* Festival 2025.

Since then, Selve have shown no signs of slowing down. Hot off support slots for Radium Dolls and festival appearances at Lost Paradise and Spilt Milk, the band continue to cement their reputation as one of the most exciting live acts out of Australia, a powerhouse rock outfit carving their own rare path.
